Your Name /GitHub_Username in/LinkedIn_Username ✉ youremail@domain.com ☎ 921 142-0420

Education

The University of So and So
- BS in Computer Science. GPA: N/A   May 2018 (I hope lol)
- Awesome Achiever at Honors College. Rockstar Officer at fSociety.
- Stuff that makes companies think you rock at colleging.

Experience

Big Corp Number 1   September 2016 - Present
- A small description of what you did. This will probably be an internship or co-op. Order any way you want. Usually dates worked works best, but if a much less relevant experience is more recent (like an on-campus job), you should shift it down. For software-related work, points like this may be nice to have:

  Technologies used - Android, IBM Watson, SQL.

Big Corp Number 2   September 2015 - December 2015
- It is okay to not have two internships. If you worked part-time through college, you should list that too. If this is an internship, good going dude. All about that corporate moolah, huh? Hey, would you mind sharing your template?

Projects

Awesome Project 1   May 2016 - Present
- Again a description of what this project is about. Try to get the point across soon, and then get into the technical details and all. Emphasise any remarks like hackathon prizes etc. I'm sure it is pretty cool, so make sure it sounds cool!

  Technologies used - C++ 14, Standard Template Library.   URL - github.com/Username/ProjectRepo

Awesome Project 2   Jan 2017 - Present
- Describe. As you see in the last project point, it is a good idea to highlight the technologies used. Also a good idea to provide a URL, even if you have linked your GitHub earlier. If this is an app that you published, definitely share the Play Store link too.

  Technologies used - Android, Firebase, Google Speech API.   URL - devpost.com/software/projectname

Skills
- Languages: Proficient - C++, Java, Python 2.7. Familiar - HTML, Matlab/Octave, R.
- Other - Android, Play Framework, Git, Bash, LaTeX, PowerShell, MS Excel.

Achievements (or Organizations)

Killer Achievement or Officer Position   November 2015 - Present
- Keep these short and to the point. Highlight money raised, events organized etc. for organizations.

Another Achievement or Volunteer Position   September 2015
- For volunteers, describe the work and hours put in.